

About us

When you visit Café Masala, you are immediately aware that this is a restaurant that dares to be different. Quality is the paramount consideration. Top quality food, professional service, and a top quality-dining ambience combine to make Café Masala an unforgettable experience.

Unique has no equal. That is what Café Masala is to customers who are over whelmed by our ever evolving cuisine.

Café Masala is a team, providing unrivalled cuisine to discerning customers. Our experience and vision that create the ultimate in dining experience have been duly complimented by local support, press and Media coverage along with many awards. Two specialist chefs in our team to bring you the best of Bangladeshi and Moghul cuisine.

Quality First

Diners at Café Masala can rest assured that only the highest quality products and genuine brands are served here. The restaurant has received 4 star award certificate from Southend On Sea Borough Council's Health & Hygiene inspector which is proudly displayed on the main entrance door.

At Café Masala we know the real sources from where to buy the best ingredients, so that the dishes served are second to none. Our head chef and his team are developing new recipes all the time, so that we do not rest on our laurels.

Come and share our passion for excellence in cuisine, created with you in mind. Our restaurant is at the cutting edge of the industry. We are ceaselessly raising our standard to meet the desires and aspirations of our customers. Our reputation was recently been awarded the prestigious British Curry Award.

Our front house staff are highly trained to make sure that all individual requirements are catered for. The history of Café Masala is one of constant achievement. Not just in the awards we have won for our excellent cuisine, but in our contribution to local charities. Café Masala has been generously contributing to local charities in various ways since last 10 years. We take pride in the fact that people come from all over the country to sample the Café Masala's experience. We hope that you will soon be one of them.
